

Jamestown Chamber of Commerce

2019 Committees

The Chamber of Commerce will function with five committees. The committee membership will be both board and non-board Chamber members with one year terms. Individuals can be on more than one committee. The committees will meet at least quarterly with periodic reports at the monthly board meetings.

Events- Responsibilities will include planning and making recommendations for regular events, including, but not limited to: “Business after Hours,” “Winter Breakfast Series,” summer events and December Holiday Stroll and Holiday Party.

Members: Ben Thomas, Jamie Munger, Jason Hatch, Charlotte McGregor, and Rebecca Drzal

Finance- Assist Treasurer in preparing the annual budget for board approval, tax return and act as auditors.

Members: Cathleen Studley, Susan Hackman and Dan Dwyer

Government Relations- Monitor the Town Council meetings for issues concerning local business community. Consider statewide and national issues as they relate to Jamestown.

Members: Bill Piva, Will Tuttle and Rebecca Drzal.

Marketing/Pubic Relations- Assist in developing and reviewing press releases and ads and other media publicizing the Chamber.

Members: Ben Thomas, Iain Wilson, Claudine Charron, Jamie Munger, Charlotte McGregor and Dan Dwyer

Membership- Maintain contact with membership as it relates to their needs. Make routine calls on members and in particular new members to ensure retention. Additionally, the committee will oversee membership development programs such as seminars and help organize membership groups such as “home based businesses.”
